

Portrait of a young man, 18th century. The painting is a study for a larger work, showing the artist's attention to detail in the subject's features and clothing. The background figure is a reference to the scales of justice, symbolizing the moral and legal aspects of the subject's life.

Казань

